

14 FEBRUARY 2020

ST THOMAS COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS) NEWSLETTER

WHAT'S INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

College Day Celebrations

Women's Day

Street Play

National Seminar

Lecture Series

Hackathon

College Day was celebrated vibrantly and the whole College throbbed with enthusiasm and energy...

- As a part of Women's Day and Health Week Celebration, the students of first year and second year PG Social Work attended a seminar on ' Women Empowerment and Inclusivity'. There were 3 sessions :
- Gender Concerns by Dr. KPN Amrutha
- Gender and Law by Adv Asha Unnithan
- Women's Health by Tony Joseph
- First year social work students conducted a street play on "Say no to drugs" in Thrissur Railway Station, in association with Railway Child Help Desk, Atma foundation.

• Department of Botany , St Thomas College (Autonomous) ,Thrissur conducted a National Seminar on "Frontiers in Biosciences".The programme started at 9:30 am in Menachery hall. Dr. Vimala Jose (HOD) welcomed the gathering. Principal Dr. K L Joy presided the function. Dr. Achuthan C Raghava Menon , Associate Professor , Department of Biochemistry, Amala Cancer Research Institute inaugurated the National seminar .He presented seminar on the topic "Role of oxidised lipids in degenerative diseases".And there were sessions led by Professors and Research Scholars from different colleges . The programme secretary was Dr. Sandhya Vincent Neelamkavil , Assistant Professor , Botany

- Intercollegiate lecture series in honour of retiring staff Dr. Thomas Paul Kattookaran & Dr. Paul Jose P. was organised by Research Dept of Commerce. Dr. Mani K P. was the resource person.

Kids in action... enthusiastically participating in Hackathon. Six students from COMPUTER SCIENCE department is participating in ASAP KERALA REBOOT HACKATHON 2020 at Thiruvananthapuram.

