FILM-MUSIC DIRECTOR & PERFORMER

ALPHONSE JOSEPH

100

Alphonse Joseph was a graduate student in the Department of Mathematics in St Thomas College, Thrissur during 1991-94 and he became the Kalaprathiba twice in the Calicut University during that time.

Alphonse Joseph is a native of Nadathara in Thrissur. He learned Kamatic Music from Mangad K. Nadeshan. He has passed seventh grade in western music and guitar from Trinity College, London. He is one among the pioneers to Testament Music Band combining Western, Kamatic and Hindustani. Alphonse got a big recognition as a singer for singing "Aaromale", a song composed by A.R. Rahaman. He was introduced to the world of cinema by the film director Badran through his film Vellithira. Neemaimukiladaka, Keranirakal, Vidaparayukayano are some of the evergreen favourite hit songs of Malayalees. Alphonse has marked a signature of his own in Malayalam and Tamil Music.
