

Department of Media Studies
St. Thomas College, Thrissur, Kerala

National Conference on Cinema and Folklore

4 & 5 January 2023

In Association with

6th International Folk Film Festival of India

1 to 5 January 2023

Selected papers will be published as an anthology with ISBN

For Registration

LINK

Abstracts of papers in 150 words with keywords and contact details (e-mail, Phone number, institutional address) are to be send through the Google form attached or before 15 December 2022.

Organized by

In association with

Department of Media Studies
St. Thomas College, Thrissur, Kerala

Themes

National Conference on Cinema and Folklore

1. Myth, Folklore and Cinema
2. Film as contemporary Folk art
3. Contemporary Cinema and Posthumanism
4. Cinema and Visual Culture
5. Emerging screen cultures
6. Screen adaptations of popular myths and history
7. Alternative Histories and Cinema
8. Gender and representation in Cinema
9. Phantoms, Spectres and Vampires: The politics of fear
10. Moving image journalism and representation of the Folk
11. Urban Folklore and Cinema
12. Folk Literature, history and narratives.
13. Folk music and performances
14. Documentaries, animated movies and folklore
15. Theorizing folkloristic

For Registration

LINK

Abstracts of papers in 150 words with keywords and contact details (e-mail, Phone number, institutional address) are to be send through the Google form attached or before 15 December 2022.

Registration fee Rs: 1000 which include entry to all conference sessions, 6th International Folk Film Festival of India screenings, lunch, tea and snacks on both conference days.

Organized by

നാട്ടു
കലാകാര
കൂട്ടം

In association with

